Mayor Jazzmin Cobble and City Councilmembers Participate in Georgia Cities Week

Stonecrest, GA – On Sunday, April 23, Mayor Jazzmin Cobble and City Councilmembers attended worship services and met with leaders throughout Stonecrest, as part of Georgia Cities Week events. During the programs, City officials addressed congregants and shared insight on local services with the community.

“Georgia Cities Week is an opportunity for us to connect with residents and build awareness on the importance of valuable services we provide throughout our city,” said Mayor Cobble. “We appreciate the support that the faith-based community continues to provide as we strive to move Stonecrest forward in a positive direction, each and every day.”

The City will host several events this month, including ‘Unwind Wednesday,’ a musical program featuring a live performance by the DJ Wright Band on Wednesday, April 26 at 6 p.m. The program will take place at City Hall located at 3120 Stonecrest Boulevard, Stonecrest, GA 30038.

The event is free. Guests are encouraged to bring lawn chairs and enjoy the after-work celebration. Food trucks will be onsite.

For a list of City events, visit Stonecrest’s website at: www.stonecrestga.gov.
