DeKalb Health Centers Gear Up for Back-to-School Season with Extended Clinic Hours

DECATUR, Ga. – It’s almost that time, again! In the coming weeks, the school bell will ring once again for students in DeKalb County, with the City Schools of Decatur starting Aug. 1 and the DeKalb County School District starting Aug. 8.

Beginning Mon., July 31, the DeKalb County Board of Health will kick off the upcoming school year with additional extended clinic hours to help parents make sure their children are first day ready for required health services. Services will include immunizations, vision, hearing, dental and nutrition screenings.
